

I. Validity/Offers

1. These General Conditions of Sale ("Conditions") shall apply to all present and future contracts with entrepreneurs, governmental entities, or special governmental estates in the meaning of sec. 310 para. 1 BGB (German Civil Code) in regard to deliveries and other services rendered. Buyer's purchase conditions shall not be binding, even if we do not expressly object to them again after their receipt. Deliveries and services are carried out exclusively to our conditions. Orders, supplements to an agreement and other stipulations are effective only in case of written confirmation, this demand being met also by transmission via fax or e-mail. Commercial terms shall be interpreted in accordance with the INCOTERMS in their current version.
2. Our offers are subject to change without notice. Any agreements, especially oral collateral agreements, promises, guaranties and other assurances given by our sales staff shall be binding only once they have been confirmed by us in writing. Online-orders via Website are to be considered as orders of the Buyer. Our confirmation e-mail is not a binding acceptance of the contract, but the confirmation of the reception of the order. The execution of the contract is the acceptance of the contract. This may take time up to 10 days.
3. We give back any drawings or sample belonging to an offer only on demand by the Buyer; otherwise we are free to abolish these three months after the offer.

II. Prices

1. Our prices are free our warehouse, excluding freight, packaging and duty, unless something else is agreed upon. Value Added Tax will be added. In case of additional deliveries we are not bound to our previous prices. Our current price list is the basis. If an online-order is placed the shipping costs can be notified only after conclusion of the contract. If shipping costs are out of relation to the value of goods, we remain our right not to perform the delivery. In this case buyer may cancel the contract after expiration of a deadline. Notwithstanding the foregoing the minimum order value is EUR 50.00. For batches less the aforementioned minimum order value we charge an additional minimum value fee of EUR 15.00.
2. If the items are to be delivered packaged, we will charge the packaging at cost price. We will take back the packaging delivered according to statutory provisions if it is returned to us freight free within a reasonable period of time.

III. Payment and Set-Off

1. Our invoices are due within 14 days with a 2 % cash discount or within 30 days net, beginning with the date of the invoice. The payment must take place within this period so that the amount involved is available to us at the latest on the due date. Any cash discount agreed to always applies to the value of the invoice excluding freight and packaging and has a prerequisite that all amounts due by the Buyer have been paid at the time of the discount. No cash discount for payments by exchange.
2. Invoices for assembly, repairs, forms, tools, trainings and other services are due immediately without deductions.
3. Counterclaims which we have contested or which have not yet been legally determined to be final and conclusive do not entitle the Buyer to withhold or offset payments.
4. When payment is not on time, at the latest by default, we are authorized to invoice interest at the level of the appropriate bank rate for overdraft credits, at a minimum, however, at 8 percentage points over the basic interest rate. A claim for further damages due to this delay remains reserved.
5. Should it become evident after the conclusion of the contract, that payment is jeopardised by the Buyer's ability to perform, or should other circumstances arise which show a material deterioration in the Buyer's ability to perform we are entitled to refrain from any further performance and exercise the rights of sec. 321 German Civil Code. In such cases we are also authorised to make due any and all of our non statute-barred accounts receivable resulting from the same legal relationship. Buyer's ability to perform shall be deemed jeopardised also if the Buyer is for at least three weeks in default with a considerable portion (10% or more) of the amounts due; further, in case of a considerable downgrading by a credit insurance.

IV. Delivery Deadlines

1. Delivery deadlines and dates are considered to have been met when the goods have left our warehouse by the time due. Our commitment to deliver is subject to our correct and timely self-delivery unless we are responsible for the deficient or late self-delivery.
2. Force majeure events entitle us to postpone the deliveries for the period of the hold-up and an appropriate start-up time. This also applies if such events occur during a present default. Force majeure is the equivalent of monetary or trade measures or other acts of sovereignty, strikes, lockouts, breakdowns not caused by us, obstruction of transport routes, delays in clearing the goods for import and in customs clearance as well as of all other circumstances, that essentially impede or render the deliveries and performances impossible, without being caused by us. Thereby, it is irrelevant if the circumstances occur at our place, the delivering plant or at another presupplier. If performance becomes unacceptable for one of the parties due to the abovementioned events, this party shall be able to withdraw from the contract by instant written declaration.

V. Retention of Title

1. All goods delivered by us remain our property (Reserved Property) until all claims arising from our business relation have been settled, regardless of the origin of the claims and including future or conditional claims. All deliveries are to be considered as one delivery transaction.
2. With regard to processing or manufacturing of the Reserved Property, we shall be deemed to be manufacturer within the meaning of sec. 950 German Civil Code without committing us in any way. The processed or manufactured goods shall be regarded as Reserved Property within the meaning of clause V/1 of these Conditions. When the Buyer processes, combines or mixes the reserved goods with other goods, we retain co-ownership in the new product in the relation of the invoice value of the reserved goods to the invoice value of the other goods produced. If our property disappears due to combination or mixture, the Buyer transfers to us already his property rights in the new goods or items in relationship to the invoice value of the reserved goods and will retain them for us without cost. The resulting co-ownership counts as Reserved Property in the meaning of clause V/1 of these Conditions.
3. The Buyer may re-sell the Reserved Property only in his normal business relations and to normal business conditions as long as he is not in arrears and only on the condition that the claims from the related sale are transferred to us according to clauses V/4 to V/6 of these Conditions. He is not authorized to use the Reserved Property for any other purpose.
4. The claims of the Buyer from the further sale of the Reserved Property count already as transferred to us. They count, in the same relationship, as security as does the Reserved Property. If the Reserved Property is sold by the Buyer together with other goods not sold by us, the assignment of the claim from the further sale is only in the amount of the sales value of the Reserved Property. With the sale of goods on which we have co-ownership according to clause V/2 of these Conditions, the assignment of the claim is in the amount of this co-ownership.
5. The Buyer is authorized to collect claims from the further sale until we exercise our rights of revocation at any time. In addition, when Buyer defaults in payment we are entitled, after expiration of an appropriate extension period, to take back the goods delivered and to request that they not be sold or processed. This taking back shall not constitute a withdrawal from the contract. At our request, the Buyer is required to inform his customers immediately about the assignment to us - as far as we do not do it ourselves - and to provide us with the necessary information and details to accomplish collection.
6. The Buyer must inform us immediately about any seizure or other adverse actions on the part of third parties. Moreover he has to inform third parties and judgment creditors about the Reserved Property and the co-ownership.
7. Should the value of the existing securities exceed the value of the secured claims by more than 50 %, we are required to release securities of our choice upon demand of the Buyer.

VI. Performance of Deliveries

1. Unless otherwise agreed we choose packaging, mode and route of dispatch at our best discretion. When the goods are handed over to a forwarding agent or a carrier, at the latest, however, when the goods leave the warehouse or - with direct sales - the supplying plant, the risk is transferred to the Buyer in all cases, even those which are prepaid or free house deliveries. The Buyer must bear the responsibilities and costs of unloading. We shall obtain insurance only at the instruction of and at the Buyer's costs.

2. We are permitted to make partial deliveries in reasonable amounts. With goods manufactured to the Buyer's specification, deliveries are permitted which are up to 10% more or less than the quantity ordered.
3. With call contracts, we are permitted to produce or have the total quantity produced at one time. Any changes desired cannot be considered after the order has been given unless this has been specifically agreed to. Unless there is a firm agreement, call up times and quantities can only take place according to our supply or manufacturing capabilities. Should the goods not be called according to the contract, after a reasonable additional period of time we are authorized to invoice them as having been delivered.
4. For business with continuous deliveries we must receive release orders and type categories for roughly the same amount per month. If the release orders or type categories are not given on time, we are entitled after the expiry of a fixed period to make the type categories and deliver the goods or to cancel the outstanding part of the contract and demand compensation instead of payment. At the end of the contract, Buyer has to accept and pay for the remaining goods on stock.

VII. Liability for Defects

1. The interior and exterior characteristics of the goods, in particular their quality, grade and dimensions are determined by the agreed, in the absence of an agreement by the current DIN and EN-norms which may be applicable at the time of the conclusion of the contract, in the absence of such by exercise and trade usage. Reference to norms and similar technical standards as well as information to quality, grade, dimensions, weights and usability of goods, information in drawings and figures plus statements in advertising material shall not be deemed as an assurance or guarantee of quality; the same shall apply to declarations of conformity and correlative labels as CE and GS. The Buyer bears the risk of suitability and usability.
2. In case of defects of the goods warranty rights are granted according to the statutory law; but we can, at our choice, either remedy the defect or replace the defective good by subsequent delivery. If the defect is only minor, the Buyer has only a right of reduction of the purchase price.
3. As to the Buyer's obligations to examine the goods and to notify us of any defects, the statutory law shall apply, subject to the following conditions: Buyer shall immediately, at the latest five days after delivery, notify us in writing of any defects of the goods. Defects which, even upon most careful inspection, cannot be discovered within this period must be notified to us in writing immediately, at the latest five days after their discovery.
4. We will reimburse the Buyer for his expenditures in connection with the substitution only and in so far as such expenditures are reasonable and proportional to the value of the goods, in no case more than 150 % of the purchase price. We shall not bear any of the Buyer's costs in connection with the assembling and/or disassembling of the defective goods nor for the self-repair of a defect nor sorting costs, nor for such supplementary costs resulting from the fact that the sold and delivered goods are at a place other than the agreed place of delivery.
5. Unless the Buyer gives us the possibility to convince ourselves of the defects, especially if, when requested, he does not make the defective goods or samples thereof available to us, he cannot claim that the goods are defective.
6. In accordance with clause VIII of these Conditions, additional claims are not acceptable. This applies in particular to claims for damages which did not occur to the goods themselves (consequential damages).

VIII. General Limitations of Liability and Statute of Limitations

1. We are liable for breach of contractual and non-contractual duties, especially those due to impossibility, delay, culpa in contrahendo and tortious acts - also those of our managerial staff and other personnel - only in cases of intent or gross negligence and shall in any case be limited to the foreseeable losses and damages characteristic for the type of contract in question at the time of the conclusion of the contract.
2. The restrictions in VIII.1 shall not apply to such cases where we breach our essential contractual obligations and where such a breach of contract will endanger the contractual purpose; it shall neither pertain to such cases where our liability is compulsory under statutory law, either under the German Product Liability Act (Produkthaftungsgesetz), or with regard to damages to life, to the body or to health, or where we have wilfully concealed any defects of the goods or guaranteed their absence. Any statutory rules regarding the burden of proof shall remain unaffected by the aforesaid.
3. Unless otherwise agreed to any contractual claims which the Buyer is entitled to in connection with the delivery of the goods or other services shall fall under the statute of limitations within a period of one year after the goods have been delivered to the Buyer. This limitation period shall also apply to such goods and services which, according to their normal purpose of use, have been used for constructional works related to real estate property and which have caused damage within this construction, unless this purpose of use has been agreed upon in writing. This period shall not apply to our liability resulting from breaches of contract caused by our wrongful intent or by our gross negligence; neither to such injuries of life, body and health caused by our fault, nor to the limitation periods of any statutory recourses. Our substitute deliveries shall not cause the renewal of the initial limitation period.

IX. Copyrights

1. We reserve our property and our copyrights of all cost estimates, drafts, drawings and other supporting papers. They may be made available to third parties only after our agreement. Drawings and other supporting documents relating to offers must be returned at our request.
2. So far as we have delivered items according to drawings, models, samples or other supporting documents supplied by the Buyer, he takes over the liability that intellectual property rights of third parties have not been damaged. If third parties, with reference to intellectual property rights, do not permit the manufacturing and delivery of those types of items, we are permitted -without being required to check the legal situation - to stop all further activities and to request damages when the Buyer is liable. In addition, the Buyer is responsible to immediately hold us free from all claims of third parties in this connection.

X. Test Parts, Forms, Tools

1. If the Buyer is required to provide parts to complete the order, they must be delivered free of costs to the place of production in the required quantity, or with an additional quantity to cover any scrap, on time, without costs and free of any defects. If this does not occur, any resulting costs and other consequences will be for his account.
2. The construction of test parts, including the costs for forms and tools are for the account of the Buyer.
3. Our liability for tools, forms and other manufacturing devices provided by the Buyer is limited to the care which we would normally apply in our own affairs. The Buyer takes over the costs for maintenance and repair. Our safekeeping responsibility ends - independently of the ownership rights of the Buyer - at the latest two years after the last manufacturing using the form or tool.

XI. Place of Performance, Jurisdiction and Applicable Law

1. The place of performance for our deliveries is our warehouse. The place of jurisdiction is our principal office. We may, however, also sue the Buyer at his place of jurisdiction.
2. All legal relationships between ourselves and the Buyer shall be governed by the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany supplementing these Conditions, excluding the provisions of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods from 11.04.1980 (CISG).

XII. Applicable Version

In case of doubt, the German version of these General Conditions of Sale shall prevail.
